

Lord of the Rings

Half Day Tours

Half day tours are great for those without the time to enjoy the full day version. Here we have the two half day versions of the iconic Trails of Middle-earth tour.

1. Trails Weapons

- See two locations
- Emphasis of the tour is on the rare weapons and other memorabilia from the movies.
- Spend time, over a hot drink and a bite to eat, reading the scripts and other paperwork from the making of the movies. Perhaps even check up on excerpts from the books.
- Plenty of time to learn how to handle the weapons and costume items, learn their histories and take as many photos as you like. These weapons are very rare and the chances of holding them even more so.
- Weapons include: Anduril, Hadhafang, Sting, Gimli's Axe, Herugrim, Aragorn' hunting knife, The White Knives, Eowyn's Sword and Narsil
- Departs at 9am from The Station information Centre
- Bookings essential
- Not recommended for children
- Allow 3.5 hrs
- Price NZ$165

2. Trails Locations

- A walking tour to over 20 locations, sights and scenes from all three movies
- Stunning and easily recognizable scenery
- Full commentary with multi-media back up
- Each location is compared to the movie and facts and relevant stories from the making of the movie are revealed.
- Locations include:- Gandalf's rides to Minas Tirith, Legolas' lookout, Aragorn's Cliff, The Warg battle, The Corsairs on the Anduin, Exit to the Paths of the Dead, The Rohan Refugees Flight and many others.
- Only 20 minutes driving there and back again
- No weapons
- Departs at 1.30pm from The Station Information Centre
- Bookings essential
- Allow 3.5 hrs
- Price NZ$165pp
