

Lord of the Rings

Mt Cook area

This amazing film location near Twizel is perfect for those staying in the area or just passing through, and is a must for the Lord of the Rings Fan or for those who are just interested in movie making. This relaxed and fun tour will take you through the many scenes from the final movie that were filmed here over one month, including the largest ever day of filming in the trilogy with over 1500 actors and crew involved.

Location Access. Place yourself in the footsteps of the actors and access the private farm land where filming took place. The views here are better than the public view point.

Highly recommended. This is only one of a few location tours recommended in The Lord of the Rings Location guidebooks by Ian Brodie.

Genuine replica LOTR items. Feel like an actor in LOTR by handling swords, helmets, flags and masks so bring your camera or video for amazing and unique photos or video. You also have the option of reenacting scenes like the charge of the Rohirrim or to kill off the Witch King

A specially built Film Road. Experience the speed of the Rohirrim charge as we drive down the main film road. This is the only location in the South Island that this is possible as most items built by the film crew were dismantled.

Lord of the Rings

Stunning scenery. 360 degree views over the Pelennor Battlefield and the White Mountains with awesome photo opportunities. Your guide will help you get the best photos so you can go home watch the DVD and compare your photos to scenes in the movie.

Not just for LOTR fans. This trip is enjoyable even if you haven't read the books or seen the movie. You will learn about techniques used to film key scenes and discover out what is real or computer generated - you might be surprised!
